

4-H CLUB ADVERTISEMENT CONTEST

The Club Advertisement Contest is designed to not only advertise the fair, it allows for your club to be able to earn some money towards club expenses. This contest is a stand alone and will not be included into the fair projects that individuals and clubs enter through Livingston County 4-H.

1. Project must be entered as a CLUB project. There are not any age restrictions, allowing Clover Buds to participate.
2. Only one entry per 4-H Club will be accepted for contest. The club wishing to make more than one project, may receive authorization for display by the fair board or advertising committee, although may not be judged as part of the contest.
3. Project must not be larger than 18" tall and not wider than 18".
4. Must include a card, plate or alike measuring no smaller than 6"x8" reading "FOWLerville FAMILY FAIR July 22-27, 2019, www.fowlervillefamilyfair.com"
5. Club name should be on the project, although the fair information must be larger or more dominate than the club name.
6. You are not limited to materials or design. The panel of judges, Fowlerville Fair Board, and/or advertising committee reserves the right to disqualify a project for inappropriate content.
7. As part of the project the 4-H club is responsible for securing a location for display, delivery to the place of business, and picking up after fair. Secured business MUST sign off on the registration form. Without this your project will be disqualified from the contest, although approval may be granted for display.
8. Project accompanied by the registration form must be turned into the Fair Office no later than Friday, June 28, 2019 at 5:00p.m.
9. Judging will take place between June 29 - July 1st. Projects MUST be picked up July 1-5, 2019 and taken to your previously agreed place of business. (The office will be closed July 4th)
10. Projects will be located and checked on by committee member to ensure you have followed through with the project in its entirety.
11. Placing clubs will receive their monetary winnings no later than August 30, 2019.
